

"Junk" phone calls are as bad as junk mail. Annoying and time consuming, especially for adults with families; wanting to spend quality time with family members and not be tied up on the phone with useless garble. If I want to buy/subscribe to something I know what my resources are.